- What is CE Marking?
- When will it happen?
- Will it affect me?
- What do I need to do?
- How can the Pioneer help?

What is CE Marking?

- Required by European & UK law.
- Construction Products Regulations.
- It is facilitated through EN 14351.
- It is a declaration, made by the manufacturer, that the product meets all the legal requirements of that market place.
- It is not a quality mark.

When will it happen?

- All doors and windows placed on the market after 1st July 2013 must be CE Marked.
- There isn't a honeymoon period.
- The date will not be extended.
- If your products are not CE Marked and you are reported, you will be investigated by Trading Standards.

Will it affect me?

- YES. It is the responsibility of the manufacturer to CE Mark all doors and windows.
- The manufacturer is the person or organisation that puts the glass and frame together.

What do I need to do?

- If you order frames and glass from Pioneer there is nothing more you need to do as we will deal with the CE Marking EN14351 Legislation.

If you purchase glass and frames separately then you need.

Our Products bear the BSI Kitemark. This is your assurance that samples are regularly subjected to rigorous, independent testing to ensure that they comply with stringent standards for safety, product performance, or reliability. In addition, the Kitemark also means that the quality systems of the factory where our products are made, are systematically assessed. The Kitemark is therefore Pioneer's commitment towards maintaining the highest possible standards.
